EDWARD PIKE

SPEAKER INFORMATION

Edward Pike is the LightWarrior Coach. He guides coaches and creators to embody their unique magic so that they can do more of what they love (aka what they were born for).

A certified personal trainer, body psychotherapist, spiritual life coach and creative consultant with 11 years of experience with groups and individuals, his approach is a unique blend of coaching, fitness, embodiment, Human Design and creative consulting.

He teaches his clients how to access the power of their body, listen to their inner GPS and live according to their uniqueness: that sweet spot between who they are as a person (their experiences, challenges and struggles) AND what they do as a professional (their unique methodology, philosophy and perspective).

His work frees people up from learnt ideas of what they need to do in order to succeed so that they can create the abundance and impact they seek while experiencing deeper joy, aliveness and satisfaction.

Edward's methodology is rooted in the premise that we each have a unique power within us: a specific way to live, do and create that we were designed for. Owning this creative power is the key to creating a better life for ourselves, our clients and our community, and to playing our part in shaping a more connected and more loving society.
